Dear Koushik Saha,

On behalf of the International Chemistry Competition, I am very pleased to congratulate you on achieving a Gold Honour in this year's competition. This distinction is awarded only to the top-performing participants and reflects your excellent performance, commitment, and enthusiasm for chemistry.

Your achievement has also been published on our official announcement page, where your name is listed among this year's Gold Honour recipients:

<https://intchc.org/en/announcement2026>

We are proud to count you among the outstanding participants of IChC. The competition is designed to challenge and inspire students like you, and we hope this recognition encourages you to continue pursuing your passion for science.

Stay connected with IChC through our website and future editions of the competition. We look forward to following your journey and to seeing what you will achieve in the years ahead.

Best regards,
Fabian Schneider
